

Teenage Life

Teenage life,
With the knife

One mashed,
Another squashed

Always in haste,
Do always waste

Always in jolly,
Never do something holy

More keen to break Rules,
Than to follow them

This is teenage,
This is mean age

Always shows off,
But forget to switch on and off

The live in city,
But are very pity

Sometimes they are sad,
Sometimes they are mad

Looking very dashing,
But always bashing

They think hangout is the only thing,
To make out

They eat Kit-Kat for a while,
Then, do chit-chat for a while
